can I use the StadtTicket?

The StadtTicket is valid for all VBN public transport within the city limits of Bremen (zones 100 and 101).

WHO

can use the StadtTicket?

The Sozialzentrum of Amt für soziale Dienste will review your eligibility to use the StadtTicket. Requirements are: you receive unemployment pay (SGB II), social security (SGB XII Cap. 3, minimum living wage support, or SGB XII Cap. 4, old-age basic income support and while reduction in earning capacity) or services according to the Asylum Seekers Benefits Act (AsylbLG) and you live in the Free Hanseatic City of Bremen. Residents of institutions, who receive services according to SGB XII, can usually also use the StadtTicket.

WHAT

do I need for the StadtTicket?

To use the StadtTicket, you need a customer card (Kundenkarte), which you can receive for free from your Sozialzentrum of Amt für soziale Dienste upon eligibility. Please have with you your identification or passport and a passport photo. If you receive unemployment pay (SGB II) please also bring a confirmation about the receipt of benefits.

Pupils from age 15 and apprentices additionally need to present either a certificate from their school or place of apprenticeship.

You can apply for an extension for your customer card at your Sozialzentrum of Amt für soziale Dienste. Please bring the relevant certificates. If all extension fields on your customer card are filled, you must receive a new customer card.

HOW MUCH

does the StadtTicket cost?

The StadtTicket for adults costs €38.90 for one calendar month. The StadtTicket for children, pupils and apprentices costs €30.30 for one calendar month.

WHERE

can I purchase the StadtTicket?

The StadtTicket can be purchased at many VBN companies which provide transport in Bremen, at their customer centres, at private sales points, at ticket machines as well as in some regional buses.

WHAT

is good to know when using the StadtTicket?

The StadtTicket is non-transferable. It is only valid in combination with a valid customer card, whereby your customer card number has to be entered on the StadtTicket. AnschlussTickets to enlarge the area of use may be used for €3.55 for adults or €2.60 for pupils and apprentices in combination with your StadtTicket.

WHEN

can other persons ride along with me on the StadtTicket?

With the StadtTicket for adults, you can take along another adult and up to four children from 6 to less than 15 years free of charge from Monday to Friday from 7 p.m. and the entire day on Saturdays, Sundays and bank holidays. With the StadtTicket for children, pupils and apprentices, other persons may not ride along.

WHEN

do I have to pay the NightLine surcharge?

When a night bus (identified with an "N") is used, each traveller has to pay the surcharge of €1 once per night (until 4 a.m.). NightLine surcharges are available at a reduced price when bought in advance (4xTicket = €3.60; €0.90/ticket).

WHAT

do I have to pay attention to when being controlled?

Should it be proven that you are not complying with the terms of usage when being controlled (e.g. customer card number is not on the StadtTicket or you are outside the area of use), you will have to pay a fee of €60.

Should you have forgot your StadtTicket, you can show proof of ownership together with the voucher received within one week at the company which issued the voucher. The fee is then reduced to €7.

WHAT

are the alternatives?
